From Screening to Support: Strengthening the Well-Child Visit in Family Medicine

Describe the problem, or gap in practice or knowledge you are addressing; and what the learner can expect to take away from this education.: Family medicine clinicians provide a substantial proportion of well-child care in Louisiana, often serving as the primary and sometimes only source of pediatric care for children and adolescents. While evidence-based child/adolescent screening recommendations across developmental, behavioral, and social domains are established, variation in implementation remains significant within family medicine settings. Many practices lack resources to support the families they serve with barriers to health and social support needs.

Provide a description regarding how this education has a direct bearing on patient care, or how it supports the physician's role in patient care, or how it has a direct bearing on a physician's ability to deliver patient care.: This session equips family medicine clinicians with practical, evidence-based strategies to enhance the quality and impact of well-child visits. Participants will review recommended screening guidelines across development and learn how standardized workflows, referral pathways, and care coordination strategies can be easily integrated into routine practice using a team-based approach. Emphasis is placed on family-centered communication, closed-loop referrals, and effective use of Louisiana-specific community and state resources to strengthen pediatric well-care visits in family medicine settings.

Select all that apply.: Screening, Care Coordination

Objective 1:: Apply evidence-based well-child screening guidelines across developmental, behavioral, social-emotional, and psychosocial domains from birth through adolescence.

Objective 2:: Implement standardized referral pathways to connect children/families to clinical, community-based, and state-supported resources.

Objective 3:: Integrate clinic-based tools (e.g., pre-visit planning, EHR prompts, referral tracking) to improve follow-up and support closed-loop referrals.

Objective 4:: Access Louisiana-specific resources to strengthen care coordination, continuity, and comprehensiveness of pediatric care within family medicine practices.

Objective 5::

Practice Change 1: Standardize well-child screening processes across providers and visit types to improve consistency, reliability, and early identification of risk.

Practice Change 2: Embed referral decision support into clinic workflows.
