

LSUHSC - New Orleans at Kenner
Family Medicine Residency Program
Program Director: James Campbell, MD

We welcomed a diverse group of five new physicians to our program in July and look forward to their time of training with us:

- Sahir Gharib, M.D.
- D’Amico Johnson, M.D.
- Lindsay Liles, M.D.
- Maxwell McCray, D.O.
- Cecilia Tran, M.D.
- Miriam Warren, M.D.

We would like to congratulate Dr. Matthew Hallowell for becoming Chief Resident for the 2018 – 2019 academic year, as well as Dr. Penny Boyle for becoming Co-Chief Resident. We would also like to acknowledge and thank Dr. Joseph Oschwald for all of his hard work at the outgoing Chief.

The program is excited to announce the addition of Severyn Yaroshevsky, MD and Ronald Gagne, MD to its faculty roster. They bring a wealth of knowledge and experience to our curriculum and will serve as a tremendous assets to the educational experience here.

The program also looks forward to curriculum enhanced through initiation of rotations in pediatrics emergency department at Children’s hospital and the physical medicine & rehabilitation at the VA in the 2018 – 2019 academic year. We are excited to have the opportunity to continue working with the LSU medical students at the homeless shelter clinic. Both the residents and students greatly benefit from this experience.

The program would also like to congratulate Dr. Marco Chavez as lead author of a poster titled “Metformin Associated Lactic Acidosis,” which has been accepted for presentation at the AAFP FMX meeting in New Orleans in October of this year.

Finally, we said goodbye to an extraordinary class of residents at our graduation ceremony on June 22nd: Anshul Acharya, MD, Arun Bansal, MD, Samera Majeed, MD, Michael Nguyen, MD, Joseph Oschwald, MD, Falon Perrin, MD, and Muhammad Usman, MD. We wish our new graduates all the best in their work and future endeavors.

Respectfully Submitted,
James Campbell, MD
Program Director
