Chapter I

Name _____

The name of this organization, an association of Family Physicians, shall be governed by and incorporated under the laws of the State of Louisiana. This organization shall be known as the Louisiana Chapter of the American Academy of Family Physicians, hereinafter referred to as the LAFFP.

CHAPTER II

Affiliation

This organization is a constituent chapter of the American Academy of Family Physicians, hereinafter referred to as the AAFP, and is possessed only of those rights and powers conferred by said corporation to this organization. No rules, regulations, or policies adopted by this organization shall be in conflict with the rules, regulations or policies of the AAFP or the charter issued by the AAFP to this organization.

The autonomy of the LAFP is limited by the Bylaws of the AAFP. Membership in the LAFP shall be a prerequisite to membership in the AAFP and the qualifications for membership are established by the AAFP.

CHAPTER III

Objects and Purposes

SECTION 1. Purposes. To the end that the people of Louisiana may receive excellence in health care, LAFP has for its purposes the following:

- A. To promote and maintain high standards among physicians who practice family medicine;
  - B. To provide responsible advocacy for and education of patients and the public in all health related matters;
  - C. To preserve and promote quality cost effective health care;
  - D. To promote and maintain the science and art of family medicine and to ensure an optimal supply of well-trained family physicians;
  - E. To preserve the right of family physicians to engage in medical and surgical procedures for which they are qualified by training and experience;
  - F. To provide for the continuing professional development of its members;
  - G. To provide advocacy, representation and leadership for the specialty of family medicine; and
  - H. To maintain and provide an organization with high standards to fulfill the above purposes and to represent the needs of its members.

SECTION 2. Objects. This organization shall have no capital stock. It is not conducted for pecuniary profit and does not contemplate pecuniary gain or profit to the members thereof.

CHAPTER IV

Membership

SECTION 1. Definition. Family Physicians. For the purpose of these Bylaws, family physicians are defined as physicians in the discipline of family medicine whose training and experience qualify them to practice in several fields of medicine and surgery, with particular emphasis on the family unit.

1       SECTION 2. Classification. There shall be the following classes of members: (A) active; (B) inactive; (C)
2       life; (D) honorary; (E) resident; (F) student; (G) supporting; (H) international and (I) transitional.
3

4       A. Active Members.

- 5       1. Eligibility. Active members shall be family physicians:
- 6           a. duly licensed to practice medicine
7              (1) in the state of Louisiana or
8              (2) that are actively working in locum tenens in a United States federal facility, provided
9              that such physician is duly licensed to practice medicine by the state medical board;
10             or
11             (3) in a position that does not require a medical license in the jurisdiction where working,
12             provided that such physician is duly licensed to practice medicine by the state medical
13             board and that such physician's practice complies with all applicable state licensing 14             requirements; and
- 15           b. who have completed a family medicine residency program approved by the Accreditation
16             Council on Graduate Medical Education (ACGME); or 17              (1) have completed a family medicine residency program approved by the College of 18             Family Physicians of Canada, and be board certified by the College of Family
19             Physicians of Canada and be employed exclusively within the United States; or 20              (2) be board certified by the American Board of Family Medicine pursuant to a reciprocity
21             agreement between the American Board of Family Medicine and a foreign 22             professional association of family medicine or general practice; or 23              (3) have satisfactorily completed either:
24               (a) one year of a rotating general or family medicine internship approved by the 25                 American Osteopathic Association (AOA) plus two years of a general or family
26                 medicine residency program approved by the American Osteopathic Association;
27                 or
28               (b) three years of a general or family medicine residency program approved by the 29                 American Osteopathic Association; or 30              c. previously held active membership before December 31, 1988
- 31       2. Application and Approval. Application for active membership shall be made on a form 32             prescribed by the AAFP Board or its designee. Election to membership shall be by the 33             approval of the Executive Vice President, followed by the publication of the applicant's name
34             in the LAFP newsletter.
- 35       3. Requirements.
- 36           a. Active members must earn 150 credits of acceptable continuing medical education every 37             three years in order to retain active membership. Election to active membership shall be 38             for a maximum period of three (3) years, at the expiration of which term the member
39             shall be eligible for re-election. No member shall be re-elected to membership who is not 40             in good standing at the time of their re-election and has not fulfilled the continuing 41             medical education requirements.
- 42           b. Former active members who apply for membership less than two years after having 43             ceased to be an active member must provide evidence they have earned the requisite
44             100 credits of continuing medical education acceptable to the Board; except that such an 45             applicant who was a resident member in good standing and automatically upgraded to 46             active status upon completion of residency training but never paid dues as an active
47             member shall not be required to satisfy this continuing medical education requirement
48             upon reapplication within two years of completion of residency training.

- 1                   c. Active members must have graduated from an accredited school of medicine or 2                   osteopathy.
- 3          4. Privileges. Active members shall have all privileges of membership that includes one vote and 4                   the privilege of the floor during the General Assembly meeting, entitled to hold office in the 5                   LAFP and have a voice in standing committees.
- 6

7          B. Inactive Members.

- 8          1. Eligibility. Effective January 1, 1989, inactive members shall be members who are:
- 9                   a. incapacitated by reason of illness, accident, or infirmity or;
- 10                  b. totally retired and not eligible for Life membership; or
- 11                  c. under extenuating circumstances established by the Board, active members, resident 12                  members and family physician supporting members who interrupt their practices or 13                  residency training; provided, however, that no person may hold inactive membership
14                  who does not hold a current medical license because such license has been revoked as a 15                  result of a disciplinary action.
- 16          2. Application and Approval. Requests for inactive membership shall be made to the LAFP and 17                  approved by the Executive Vice President.
- 18                  a. Election to inactive membership shall be for a maximum of one year, subject to re-19                  election pursuant to clause c below, unless the member is totally retired.
- 20                  b. An inactive member may be re-elected to this classification annually by the Board.
- 21                  c. Totally retired members need not be re-elected annually.
- 22          3. Privileges. Inactive members shall be given privileges of the floor of the General Assembly
23                  without the right to vote, not be entitled to hold office in the LAFP and not have a voice in 24                  standing committees.
- 25

26          C. Life Members.

- 27          1. Eligibility. Life members shall be persons who have held active membership in the AAFP for a 28                  minimum of 25 years and who have had five years of continuous membership immediately
29                  prior to election as life members. Such persons must have also attained age seventy (70) or 30                  who are totally retired from the practice of medicine. No person may hold life membership
31                  who does not hold a current medical license because such license has been revoked as a result 32                  of a disciplinary action.
- 33          2. Application and Approval. Requests for life membership shall be made to the Executive Vice 34                  President for approval, followed by the publication of the applicant's name in the LAFP
35                  newsletter.
- 36          3. Privileges. Life members shall be given privileges of the floor of the General Assembly without 37                  the right to vote, not be entitled to hold office in the LAFP and have a voice in standing
38                  committees.
- 39

40          D. Honorary Members.

- 41          1. Eligibility. Honorary members shall be persons of distinction who have rendered outstanding 42                  service to the LAFP or to the medical profession, or distinguished members of the LAFP who 43                  have retired from practice.
- 44          2. Nomination and Approval. Nominees for honorary membership must be presented to the 45                  Board for consideration.
- 46          3. Privileges. Honorary members shall not pay dues or admission fees, and shall have no right,
47                  title or interest in any of the property of the LAFP, may not hold office but shall be given

- 14                  teaching or a specific clinical area of interest.
- 15                  2. Application and Approval. Applications for resident membership shall be made on a form
- 16                  prescribed by the AAFP Board or its designee. Election to resident membership shall be by
- 17                  approval of the Executive Vice President, followed by publication of the applicant's name in
- 18                  the LAFP newsletter.
- 19                  a. Election to resident membership shall be for the duration of one's residency or extended
- 20                  training.
- 21                  b. Upon completion of their residency training, and upon verification of eligibility for active
- 22                  membership, resident members shall be automatically transferred to active membership.
- 23                  3. Privileges.
- 24                  a. Resident members may serve on LAFP and AAFP committees as determined by the Board.
- 25                  Resident members who are appointed to serve on committees have the right to vote in
- 26                  such bodies but are not eligible to serve as chair.
- 27                  b. A resident member shall be elected to serve on the Board of Directors as described in
- 28                  Chapter IX of these Bylaws.
- 29                  c. The resident member of the Board shall have full voting privileges on the Board.
- 30                  d. A resident member shall be elected to serve as the resident delegate to the General
- 31                  Assembly, who shall have full voting privileges in the General Assembly.
- 32                  e. A resident member shall be elected to serve as the resident delegate to the AAFP National
- 33                  Conference.
- 34                  f. Otherwise, resident members shall not be entitled to hold office in the LAFP, but shall
- 35                  have voice in standing committees.

36

37                  F. Student Members.

- 38                  1. Eligibility. Student members shall be students enrolled in allopathic or osteopathic medical
- 39                  schools that are (a) accredited by the Liaison Committee on Medical Education (LCME) or the
- 40                  American Osteopathic Association's Commission on Osteopathic College Accreditation (AOA
- 41                  COCA), or (b) listed as operational in the then-current edition of the World Directory of
- 42                  Medical Schools. Membership shall terminate upon graduation or withdrawal from medical
- 43                  school.
- 44                  2. Application and Approval. Applications for student membership shall be made on a form
- 45                  prescribed by the AAFP Board or its designee. Election to membership shall be by approval
- 46                  of the Executive Vice President, followed by publication of the applicant's name in the LAFP
- 47                  newsletter.

- 1           3. Privileges.
- 2           a. Student members may serve on LAFP and AAFP committees as determined by the Board.
3           Student members who are appointed to serve on committees have the right to vote in
4           such bodies but are not eligible to serve as chair.
- 5           b. A student member shall be elected to serve on the Board as described in Chapter IX of 6           these Bylaws.
- 7           c. The student member of the Board shall have full voting privileges on the Board.
- 8           d. A student member shall be elected to serve as the student delegate to the General
9           Assembly, who shall have full voting privileges in the General Assembly.
- 10          e. A student member shall be elected to serve as the student delegate to the AAFP National 11          Conference.
- 12          f. Otherwise, student members shall not be entitled to hold office in the LAFP but shall have 13          a voice in standing committees.
- 14

15         G. Supporting Members.

- 16          1. Eligibility.
- 17          a. Supporting members shall be:
18           (1) physicians residing and practicing in the U.S. (or its territories or possessions) who 19           completed an ACGME- or AOA-accredited residency program in specialties other than 20           family medicine and not otherwise eligible for some other category of membership;
21           or
22           (2) physicians who previously held supporting membership before September 30, 2016.; 23           and
- 24          b. A supporting member shall also be duly licensed in the state in which he or she practices.
- 25          2. Application and Approval. Application for supporting membership shall be made on a form
26          prescribed by the AAFP Board or its designee. Election to membership shall be by approval
27          of the Executive Vice President, followed by publication of the applicant's name in the LAFP
28          newsletter.
- 29          3. Privileges. Supporting Members shall be given privileges of the floor of the General Assembly
30          without the right to vote, not be entitled to hold office in the LAFP and have a voice in standing
31          committees .

33         H. International Members.

- 34          1. Eligibility. International members shall be:
35          a. family physicians outside of the United States engaged in family medicine, the teaching
36           of family medicine or medical administration, who are licensed to practice in countries
37           or territories outside the United States in which no constituent chapter exists and who 38           are not eligible for membership in the Uniformed Services chapter; or 39          b. physicians in training in countries or territories outside the United States in which no
40           constituent chapter exists and who are not eligible for membership in the Uniformed
41           Services chapter
- 42          2. Application and Approval. Applications for international membership shall be made on a 43          form prescribed by the AAFP Board or its designee. Election to membership shall be by the
44          approval of the Executive Vice President, followed by publication of the applicant's name in
45          the LAFP newsletter.
- 46          3. Privileges. International members shall be given privileges of the floor of the General
47          Assembly without the right to vote, not be entitled to hold office in the LAFP and have a voice
48          in standing committees.

1       I. Transitional Members

2       1. Eligibility

- 3           a. A transitional member shall be a graduate of an allopathic or osteopathic medical 4           school as defined in Article III, Section 2.F.1., who has not yet entered an ACGME- or 5           AOA-approved residency.
- 6           b. Eligibility for transitional membership will terminate on December 31st of the second full 7           calendar year following the year in which such member graduated from such allopathic
8           or osteopathic medical school or upon the member's earlier enrollment in a residency
9           program as described in subsection a. above.

10       2. Application and Approval. Applications for transitional membership shall be in a form
11       prescribed by the Board or its designee. Election to membership shall by the approval of 12       the Executive Vice President, followed by publication of the applicant's name in the LAFP
13       newsletter.

14       3. Privileges. Transitional members shall be given privileges of the floor of the General
15       Assembly without the right to vote, not be entitled to hold office in the LAFP and have a 16       voice in standing committees.

17

18       SECTION 3. Good Standing. A member in good standing shall be one whose current dues and
19       assessments, if any, have been paid in accordance with the provision of these Bylaws, who is duly licensed
20       to practice medicine, if applicable, and who has met the applicable CME requirements during the period
21       of the preceding three (3) years as set forth in these Bylaws and the Bylaws of the AAFP. Inactive, life, 22       honorary, resident, student, supporting, international, and transitional members shall be relieved of the 23       continuing medical education requirements as provided in these Bylaws.

24

25       A member who is on probation or has limitations/restrictions on his/her license but is still able to practice
26       medicine according to the Louisiana state licensing board is considered a member in good standing.

27

28       SECTION 4. Changes in Membership Status. Any member who changes his or her occupation or status
29       in such a manner as to render him or her ineligible for membership in the LAFP, may, unless he or she 30       resigns, be dropped from the roll of members by the Board. The Board or an entity designated by the 31       Board, acting in accordance with Board approved criteria, may waive or reduce members' dues. Other
32       exceptions to the foregoing membership rules and requirements may be made under unusual
33       circumstances and on an individual basis only upon a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the Board.

34

35       SECTION 5. Acceptance of Membership. Acceptance of membership in the LAFP shall constitute an 36       agreement by such member to comply with the Bylaws thereof and to recognize the Board as the sole and 37       only judge of the right to be or remain a member.

38

39       All rights, title, and interest, both legal and equitable, of a member in and to the property of the LAFP shall 40       cease and terminate in the event of the any of the following: (a) the expulsion of such member; (b) the 41       striking of his/her name from the roll of members; or (c) his/her death or resignation.

42

43       SECTION 6. Transfer of Membership. The transfer of membership from the LAFP to another state chapter
44       shall be subject to the approval of the AAFP Board of Directors.

45           A. Transfer of membership shall:

- 46           1. Occur within six (6) months after moving;

2. Be verified for eligibility of membership in the LAFP of the new practice location or residence; and
    3. Provide notice of transfer to the member and to the previous and new chapters.
  - B. Members who fail to transfer their LAFP membership within six (6) months, shall, upon verification of eligibility, be automatically relocated to the chapter in which they then practice or reside. If membership eligibility cannot be verified in the new chapter where the member practice or resides, then the member shall be notified that after thirty (30) days their membership will be canceled.
  - C. If transferring to a state or region where no constituent chapter exists, a member shall remain a member of his/her constituent chapter.
  - D. Resident members shall automatically be transferred who have just completed their residency training and are relocating to the appropriate chapter without first being required to apply for transfer of membership in that chapter.

CHAPTER V

Dues and Assessments

SECTION 1. Active Members. Dues for active members shall not exceed any maximum amount that may be established, from time to time, by majority vote of the General Assembly as recommended by the Board of Directors. Dues are due and payable upon election to membership and shall be payable in advance on the first day of January of each year. Members whose dues and assessments are in arrears at the time of the General Assembly meeting of the LAFP shall be ineligible to vote or hold office.

SECTION 2. Other Classes of Membership. The dues of all other classes of membership other than active members shall be fixed by the Board of Directors. In addition, other than active members shall be required to pay such dues to the AAFP as may be prescribed by the Bylaws of that organization. Under unusual circumstances and on an individual basis, the Board of Directors by a two-thirds (2/3) vote may waive payment of dues upon recommendation of the constituent chapter and with the approval of the AAFP Board of Directors.

SECTION 3. Special Assessments. Special assessments not to exceed one hundred dollars ($100.00) may be applied equally to all membership classifications by affirmative action of two thirds (2/3) of the members of the General Assembly. Notification of a proposal to vote on an assessment must be in writing at least 100 days prior to the meeting of the General Assembly.

SECTION 4. Any member whose dues or assessments are unpaid at the time of any annual meeting shall be ineligible to vote or to hold office.

ARTICLE VI

Fellow

SECTION 1. Definition. A Fellow is an earned degree upon fulfilling the following requirements:

- A. held active membership for six years or a combination of resident and active membership for a total of six years; and
  - B. fulfilled such other criteria for Fellow as may be established by the AAFP Board of Directors.

SECTION 2. Classification. A Fellow shall not be considered a separate membership classification but shall be considered an earned degree.

1 SECTION 3. Eligibility. A Fellow shall continue to hold membership in the AAFP based upon one of the 2 classifications of membership.

4 SECTION 4. Application. Any active, inactive, or life member in good standing may, upon application to 5 the AAFP, be elected to receive the degree of Fellow upon fulfilling the foregoing requirements. Under 6 unusual circumstances satisfactory to the AAFP Board of Directors, exceptions may be made on an
7 individual basis to the foregoing Fellow requirements by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the AAFP Board of 8 Directors.

SECTION 5. Requirements. The degree of Fellow shall be conferred at convocation of the AAFP or at the LAFP annual meeting.

CHAPTER VII

Meetings

16   SECTION 1. Annual Meeting. Unless otherwise ordered by the Board of Directors there shall be an annual
17 meeting of the LAFP which shall include a meeting of the General Assembly together with such meetings
18 of the Board of Directors, Executive Committee, and other standing committees as may be fixed by the 19 Board of Directors. The date and place of the annual meeting shall be designated by the Board of 20 Directors.

22 SECTION 2. General Assembly. The General Assembly shall meet during the annual meeting of the LAFP
23 and at such other times and places as it may determine. Special meetings may be called by the Board of 24 Directors or the President. Special meetings shall be called by the Secretary upon the written request of 25 any ten (10) or more members at a place and time determined by the Board of Directors. Special meetings
26 shall be held at such time and place as may be set forth in said call, provided notice of such meeting dates
27 shall be given by the Executive Vice President in writing at least sixty (60) days prior. The Board of 28 Directors may adopt such rules of procedure for the transaction of business at the annual meeting,
29 General Assembly, or any special meeting of the LAFP as it deems desirable unless otherwise provided in
30 these Bylaws.

CHAPTER VIII

General Assembly

35 SECTION 1. Definition. The control and administration of the LAFP shall be vested in the General
36 Assembly, subject to the statutory authority of the Board and to those additional duties and powers
37 specifically reserved to the Board in these Bylaws. The General Assembly may, at any time by a majority
38 vote, refer and submit to the members of the LAFP defined questions affecting the policy or 39 recommendations of the LAFP which, in the opinion of the General Assembly, are of immediate, practical
40 consequence to the members of the LAFP and to the public. The result of the referendum when duly 41 ascertained by such vote shall control the acts of the LAFP and its officers, agents and employees.

43   SECTION 2 Notice. Notice of the General Assembly shall be given by the Secretary to all members at least
44   sixty (60) days prior to the date of such meeting, either by letter mailed to the member's address as it
45   appears on the Secretary's records or by publications in the official publication, if any, of the LAFP.

47 SECTION 3. The Executive Vice President of the LAFP shall be the Secretary of the General Assembly.

SECTION 4. Composition. The composition of the General Assembly shall be:

- A. Any LAFP member in good standing
  - B. One medical student and one resident shall be elected for a term of one year to serve as delegates, each of whom shall be student or resident members, respectively, and in good standing

SECTION 5. Election. The process for election of the student and resident delegate shall be in accordance with these Bylaws.

9      SECTION 4. The members of a student chapter shall be medical or osteopathic students to whom a charter
10     is issued and such additional persons meeting the qualifications for student membership set forth in these
11     Bylaws and the Bylaws of the AAFP. Such members shall attend school within the geographic boundaries
12     of the student chapter as determined by the Board of Directors provided, however, that under usual
13     circumstances and upon written request of the member he/she may affiliate with another component
14     chapter at the direction of the Board of Directors. No person may hold membership in a student chapter
15     unless he/she is likewise a student member of this constituent state chapter and the AAFP.
16

17     SECTION 5. The charter of any component or student chapter may be suspended or revoked by the Board
18     of Directors in the event of any action deemed to be in conflict with the letter or intent of these Bylaws
19     or of the lawful requirements of the Board of Directors or officers of the LAFP, in the manner hereinafter
20     specified.
21

22     Any member of the LAFP may file written charges against any such component or student chapter with 23     the Secretary of this chapter. Such charges must be signed by the accuser or accusers, and must state the 24     acts or conduct complained of with reasonable particularity. The Secretary must present said charges to 25     the Board of Directors at its next meeting. The Board of Directors shall then or at any adjournment of said
26     meeting, but not more than thirty (30) days thereafter, consider the charges and shall either dismiss them
27     or proceed as hereinafter set forth.
28

29     If the Board fails to dismiss said charges it shall within ten (10) days thereafter cause a copy of the charges
30     to be served upon the accused component or student chapter by depositing in the United States mail a
31     copy thereof, registered and mailed to the Secretary or other officer of said chapter. The Board shall also 32     and at the same meeting fix a time and place for the hearing of said charges and the accused component
33     or student chapter shall be notified of the time and place at the same time and in the same manner as 34     provided for the serving of the charges. The time set for the hearing shall be not less than fifteen (15)
35     days nor more than ninety (90) days after service of charges.
36

37     The Board shall, after having given the accused and the accuser reasonable opportunity to be heard in 38     person or by counsel and to present all evidence and proofs, conclude the hearing and within thirty (30)
39     days thereafter shall render a decision. The affirmative vote of a majority of the members of the Board
40     present and voting shall constitute the decision of said Board which may by such vote dismiss the charges
41     or order them presented to a regular or special meeting of the members of the Louisiana Chapter. In 42     either event the Board shall make known its decision in a written resolution signed by the Secretary and 43     chair thereof. In the former event the Board shall furnish the accused and the accuser with a copy of the 44     resolution. In the latter event its resolution shall be read at the next regular meeting of the members or 45     at a special meeting duly called for that purpose, provided that a copy of the decision shall be delivered
46     to the accused in the same manner provided for the service of charges at least fifteen (15) days before
47     such meeting. The accused and the accusers shall be given reasonable opportunity to be heard at the

1 meeting of the members where the decision is read. A two-thirds (2/3) majority of all those present and
2 voting shall be required to suspend or revoke the charter of the accused component chapter.

3

4                   CHAPTER XV
5                   Standing Committees

6

7 The committees of the LAFP shall be standing committees. All members of any LAFP committee must be

41       2. supervising the keeping of the LAFP's accounts,
42       3. supervising the operational costs and approving all expenditures incurred in maintaining the 43       LAFP Headquarters Office Building including all property.
44     B. To biennially make a study of the Bylaws and make recommendations for changes, deletions, or 45       modifications in order to maintain the integrity and consistency of the Bylaws.
46     C. To evaluate LAFP projects and recommend to the Board of Directors any initiative which would 47       aid in the Long Range Planning of the LAFP.

- 1      SECTION 5. Committee on Legislation & Advocacy. The functions of this committee shall be:
- 2      A. Directs all state legislative activities of the LAFP in accordance with the actions and policies of 3                  the General Assembly;
- 4      B. Advises the LAFP as to the appropriate course of action to achieve its legislative goals;
- 5      C. Identify member's interest and use mechanisms to advocate for those interests, effectively and 6                  efficiently using the resources of the LAFP;
- 7      D. To communicate with elected representatives regarding legislation that the LAFP believes will 8                  improve the health of the citizens of Louisiana;
- 9      E. Promoting the growth of a robust primary care physician workforce;
- 10     F. Ensuring appropriate payment for family physicians in all areas of the medical marketplace based 11                  on the value they contribute to the delivery of health care;
- 12     G. Identify the needs of our patients and advocate for those interests, effectively and efficiently
13                  using the resources of the LAFP;
- 14     H. To investigate and recommend such action to the Board of Directors to ensure that the LAFP 15                  shall have an active voice on all issues concerning legislation and governmental affairs; and
- 16     I. To evaluate and advise the Board of Directors on such issues of ethics as may come before the 17                  Academy and to make recommendations to the Board of Directors on such ethics issues as the 18                  Board shall deem appropriate.

19

20     SECTION 6. Committee on Membership. The functions of this committee shall be:

- 21     A. To promote membership interest in the LAFP;
- 22     B. To initiate, coordinate, and subsidize membership services made available through the LAFP;
- 23     C. To evaluate and advise the Board of Directors on issues of concern to minority physicians;

- 26     F. To formulate and advise the Board of Directors on plans and programs which expand, maintain 27                  and improve health care services and standards;
- 28     G. To ensure that relationships with members are relevant, valued and communicated;
- 29     H. To support members in fulfilling their practice and career goals; and
- 30     I. To evaluate and advise the Board of Directors on other issues as deemed appropriate by the Board
31                  of Directors;

32

33     SECTION 7. Committee on Nominations. The President shall, at least ninety days before the General
34                  Assembly meeting, form the Nominating Committee, which will be comprised for the following members:
35                  the Membership Committee Chair, who will serve as the Nominating Committee Chair, the President,
36                  President-Elect, Immediate Past President and two other Board of Directors members selected by the 37                  President.

38

39     The functions of this committee shall be:

- 40     A. meet at least ninety days prior to the date of the annual General Assembly.
- 41     B. insure that there is at least one candidate for election to each officer position; and each vacant
42                  Director and Alternate Director slot; and each vacant AAFP Delegate and AAFP Alternate Delegate
43                  slot.
- 44     C. investigate the qualifications of prospective candidates and receive assurance from each selectee
45                  that he/she is willing and eager to serve the LAFP and attend all Board Meetings and other 46                  meetings that the position requires.
- 47     D. present the selections of the Nominating Committee, with the exception of the Office of 48                  Treasurer, at a time during the General Assembly determined by the Speaker. These nominations,

1 as presented by the Committee Chair, shall indicate that the selections are not endorsements
2 and other nominations from the Assembly floor are in order.

- 3 E. present a nomination for the Office of Treasurer to the Board of Directors meeting held during 4 the Assembly.

5

6 SECTION 8. Resident and Student Leadership Committee. The functions of this committee shall be:

- 7 A. To provide a forum for resident and student members of the LAFP to meet and discuss problems
8 and solutions regarding Family Medicine policy, primary care physician recruitment, clinical skills
9 assessment and improvement, and leadership development.
10 B. To support, encourage, and validate the choice of Family Medicine as a specialty.
11 C. To coordinate efforts in recruitment and programming between residents and students in the 12 state
13 D. To evaluate and advise the Board of Directors on issues unique to medical students and family
14 medicine residents
15 E. To facilitate the LAFP Mentorship Program amongst students, residents, and practicing physicians
16 F. To facilitate planning of resident and student programs,
17 G. To assist in planning resident and student activities at Annual Assembly, and 18 H. To promote LAFP information and events to residency programs and FMIGs

19

20 SECTION 9. Meetings.

21 Each Committee, excluding the Committee on Nominations, shall meet at least twice a year and submit
22 an annual report to the Board of Directors prior to the annual meeting of the General Assembly.

23

24 CHAPTER XVI
25 Ethics

26

27 SECTION 1. Definition. The Principles of Medical Ethics of the AAFP, as they now or hereafter may provide,
28 shall be the principles of ethics of the LAFP and shall be and hereby are made a part of these Bylaws.

29

30 SECTION 2. Charges. If any member is believed in good faith to:

- 31 A. Have violated the Principles of Medical Ethics or the Bylaws of the LAFP and/or of the AAFP, or 32 B. Be otherwise guilty of conduct justifying censure, suspension, or expulsion from the LAFP, any 33 member may prefer charges against him/her in the form and manner hereinafter specified.
34 (1) Charges must be in writing and signed by the accuser or accusers
35 (2) Charges must state the acts or conduct complained of with reasonable particularity.
36 (3) Charges must be filed with the Secretary
37 (4) At the first meeting of the Board held after the filing of said charges, the Secretary must 38 present said charges to the Board.
39 (5) The Board shall then or, at any adjournment of said meeting but not more than thirty (30)
40 days thereafter, consider the charges and shall either dismiss them or shall proceed as 41 hereinafter set forth, provided, however, that to the extent the provisions in this chapter are 42 in conflict with applicable law, the provisions of applicable law shall supersede these Bylaws.
43 (6) If the Board fails to dismiss said charges it shall:
44 a. within fifteen (15) days thereafter cause a copy of the charges to be served upon the 45 accused by depositing in the United States mail a copy thereof, registered and addressed 46 to the last known address of the accused;
47 b. at the same meetings, fix a time and place for hearing said charges;

- c. notify the accused of the time and place for hearing said charges and in the same manner as provided for the serving of the charges; and
  - d. time set for said hearing shall be not less than fifteen (15) days nor more than six months after serving of charges.

(7) The accused may answer in writing but need not do so and failure to answer shall not be an admission of truth of the charges or a waiver of the accused's right to a hearing.

(8) The Board shall:

  - a. after having given to the accuser and the accused every opportunity to be heard, including oral arguments and the filing and consideration of any written briefs, conclude the hearing; and
  - b. within thirty (30) days thereafter shall render a decision.

(9) The affirmative vote of a majority of the members of the Board present and voting shall constitute the verdict of said Board which by such vote may exonerate, censure, suspend or expel the accused member.

(10) The decisions of the Board shall be signed only by the President and the Secretary.

(11) Only Board members who are present for the entire hearing may vote.

SECTION 3. Censure. Censure shall mean a reprimand by the chair of the Board of Directors administered to the accused in the presence of the said Board. No member shall be suspended for more than one (1) year and at the expiration of the period of suspension shall be reinstated to membership upon his/her application and the payment of dues accrued during the period of suspension.

Any member who has been censured, suspended, or expelled may appeal such action to the AAFP pursuant to the Bylaws of said corporation.

CHAPTER XVII

Inspection of Records

SECTION 1. Inspection of Records. The minutes of the proceedings of the Board of Directors, the membership books, and the books of account shall be open to inspection upon the written demand of any member at any reasonable time, for any purpose reasonably related to the members interest as a member, and shall be produced at any time when requested by the demand of ten percent (10%) of the members at any regular or special meeting of the members. Such inspection may be made by agent or attorney, and shall include the right to make extracts thereof. Demand of inspection, other than a meeting of the members, shall be in writing, upon the President or Secretary of the Louisiana Chapter.

SECTION 2. Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the LAFP shall begin on the first day of January and end on the last day of December of each year.

CHAPTER XVIII

Parliamentary Authority

SECTION 1. Parliamentary Procedure. In the absence of any provision in the Bylaws, all meetings of the LAFP and of the Board of Directors shall be governed by the parliamentary rules and usage's contained in the most current edition of American Institute of Parliamentarians Standard Code of Parliamentary Procedure, revised.

CHAPTER XIX

Indemnification

SECTION 1. The LAFP may indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (including any action by or in the right of the LAFP) by reason of the fact that such person is or was a Director, Officer, employee or agent of the LAFP, or is or was serving at the request of the LAFP as a Director, Officer, employee or agent of another business, foreign or non-profit corporation, partnership, joint venture or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him/her in connection with such action, suit proceeding if he/she acted in good faith and in a manner he/she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the LAFP, and with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his/her conduct was unlawful; provided that in case of actions by or in the right of the LAFP, the indemnity shall be limited to expenses (including attorney's fees and amounts paid in settlement not exceeding, in the judgment of the Board of Directors, the estimated expense of litigating the action to conclusion) actually and reasonably incurred in connection with the defense or settlement of such action and no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged after to be liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of his/her duty to the LAFP unless and only to the extent that the court shall determine upon application, that despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all the circumstances of the case, he/she is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which the court shall deem proper. The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner which he/she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the LAFP and ,with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that his/her conduct was unlawful.

28 SECTION 2. Successful Defense. To the extent that a Director, Officer, employee or agent of the LAFP has 29 been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any such action suit or proceeding, or in defense
30 of any claim, issue or matter therein, he/she shall be indemnified against expenses (including attorneys' 31 fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him/her in connection therewith.

33   SECTION 3. Standard of Conduct. The indemnification hereunder (unless ordered by the court) shall be
34   made by the LAFP only as authorized in a specific case upon a determination that applicable standard of 35   conduct has been met. Such determination shall be made (1) by the Board of Directors by a majority vote
36   of a quorum consisting of Directors who were not parties to such action, suit or proceeding, or (2) if such 37   a quorum is not obtainable or a quorum of disinterested Directors so directs, by independent legal 38   counsel, or (3) by the Members.

SECTION 4. Advance Payment. The expenses incurred in defending such an action, suit or proceeding may be paid by the LAFP in advance of the final disposition thereof if authorized by the Board of Directors, as provided above, upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the Director, Officer, employee or agent to repay such amount if it shall ultimately be determined that he/she is not entitled to be indemnified by the LAFP as authorized.

46   SECTION 5. Other Rights. The indemnification provided hereunder shall not be deemed exclusive of any 47 other rights to which one indemnified may be entitled under any bylaw, agreement, authorization of 48 members or Directors, regardless of whether Directors authorizing such indemnification are beneficiaries

1 thereof, or otherwise, both as to action in his/her official capacity and as to action in another capacity
2 while holding such office, and shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a Director, Officer,
3 employee or agent and shall inure to the benefit of his/her heirs and legal representative.

5 SECTION 6. Insurance. The LAFP shall have the power to procure insurance or other similar arrangement
6 including, without limitation, a trust fund or other form of self-insurance, on behalf of any person who is
7 or was a Director, Officer, employee, or agent of the LAFP, or is or was serving at the request of the LAFP
8 as Director, Officer, employee or agent of another business, non-profit or foreign corporation,
9 partnership, joint venture or other enterprise against any liability asserted against or incurred by him/her
10 in any such capacity, or arising out of his/her status as such, whether or not the LAFP would have the 11 power to indemnify him/her against such liability under the Non-Profit Corporation Law of Louisiana.

CHAPTER XX

Bylaws or Amendments

SECTION 1. Bylaws or Amendments.

- 17 A. Any five (5) or more members may propose Bylaws or Amendments of Bylaws.

18 B. Such proposals shall be submitted to the Executive Vice President or the Secretary at least sixty

19 (60) days prior to any regular or special meeting of the General Assembly and notice shall be given

20 by him/her to all members at least thirty (30) days prior to the meeting at which the proposals

21 are to be voted upon.

22 C. Such notice shall:

23 1. be published in an official publication of the LAFP sent to the entire membership; and

24 2. include a summary of all proposed amendments; and

25 3. set forth a mechanism by which any member may obtain a copy of all proposed amendments.

26 D. An affirmative vote of at least two-thirds (2/3) of the members present and voting shall constitute 27 adoption.

28 E. Amendments shall take effect immediately upon adoption unless otherwise specified.
